Delegates to the Congress Meet and Organize.

BLAINE'S ADDRESS OF WELCOME.

Three Score of Representatives in Attendance—Resolutions Adopted—Secretary Blaine Chosen as President of the International Congress—Calling on the President.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—Nearly three score of distinguished looking men assembled at the state department yesterday morning. They were the delegates to the three American congresses. Before proceeding to the department they had their pictures taken in a group at the Wallach mansion, where the congress will meet.

A few minutes after the noon hour the delegates, headed by Assistant Secretary A. C. of the state department, walked in procession from the diplomatic reception room to the diplomatic reception room in pairs. The Brazilian delegates were attired in brilliant uniforms, resplendent with gold lace, but all the others wore plain black clothes with the exception of Capt. Bourke, of the United States army, one of the aides to the congress, who wore his cavalry uniform. Some of the delegates were attired in evening dress and carried opera hats.

As the delegates had assembled in the reception room the doors closed and the proceedings in it were conducted secretly. Only those persons who had credentials to the congress were allowed to remain in the apartment. When the delegates had assembled in the room, Secretary Blaine passed around among them and greeted each in an entirely informal manner. All the delegates were present except T. A. Coudage, of Boston, who will join the delegate at his city. After a few minutes of chatting Secretary Blaine took his stand at the head of the long central table in the room, and, using a large pair of shears as a gavel, called the meeting to order and made the following address:

GENTLEMEN OF THE INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE—Speaking for the government of the United States, I bid you welcome to this capital. Speaking for the people of the United States, I bid you welcome to every section and to every state in the Union. You come in response to an invitation extended by the president on the special authorization of congress. Your presence here is no ordinary event. It signifies much to the people of all America to-day. It may signify far more in the days to come. No conference of nations has ever assembled to consider the welfare of territorial possessions so vast and to contemplate the possibilities of a future so great and so inspiring. Those now sitting within these walls are empowered to speak for nations whose borders are on both the ocean, whose northern limits are touched by the Arctic waters or a thousand miles beyond the straits of Bering, whose southern extension furrows the human habitations farther below the equator than is elsewhere possible in the globe.

The aggregate territorial extent of the nations here represented falls but little short of 12,000,000 square miles, more than three times the area of all Europe, and but little less than one-fourth part of the globe, while in respect to the power of producing the articles which are essential to human life and those which minister to life's luxury, they constitute even a larger proportion of the entire world. These great possessions to-day have an aggregate population approaching 120,000,000, but if peopled as densely as the average of Europe, the total number would exceed 1,000,000,000.

We believe that friendship avowed with candor and maintained with good faith will remove from American states the necessity of guarding boundary lines between themselves with fortifications and military force. We believe that standing armies beyond these which are needful for public order and the safety of interval administration should be unknown upon both American continents. We believe that friendship and not force, the spirit of just laws and not the violence of the mob should be the recognized rule of administration between American nations and in American nations. In these subjects and those which are cognate thereto, the attention of this conference is earnestly and cordially invited by the government of the United States.

While considerations of this character must inspire Americans, both south and north, with the liveliest anticipations of future grandeur and power, they must also impress them with a sense of the gravest responsibility touching the character and development of their respective nationalities. The delegates whom I am addressing can do much to establish permanent relations of confidence, respect and friendship between the nations which they represent. They can show to the world an honorable and peaceful conference of seventeen independent American powers, in which all shall meet together on terms of absolute equality; a conference in which there can be no attempt to coerce a single delegate against his own conception of the interest of his nation; a conference which will permit no secret understanding on any subject, but will frankly publish to the world all conclusions; a conference which will tolerate no spirit of conquest but will aim to cultivate an American sympathy as broad as both continents; a conference which will form no selfish alliances against the older nations from which are proud to claim inheritance; a conference, in fine, which will seek nothing, propose nothing, endure nothing that is not in the general sense of all the delegates timely, and wise and peaceful.

And yet we cannot be expected to forget that our common fate has made us inhabitants of the two continents which, at the close of four centuries, are still regarded beyond the seas as the new world. Like situations beget like sympathies and impose like duties, we meet in the firm belief that the nations of America ought to be and can be more helpful each to the other, than they now are, and that each will find advantage and profit from an enlarged intercourse with the others. We believe that we should be drawn together more closely by the highways of the sea, and that at no distant day the railway systems of the north and south will meet upon the isthmus and connect by land routes the politics and commerce of all America. We believe that hearty co-operation based on hearty confidence will save all American states from the burdens and evils which have long and cruelly afflicted the older nations of the world. We believe that a spirit of justice, of common and equal interest between the American states will leave no room for an artificial balance of power like unto that which has led to wars abroad and drenched Europe in blood.

It will be a great gain when we shall acquire that common confidence on which all international friendship must rest. It will be a greater gain when we shall be able to draw the people of all American nations into closer acquaintance with each other—an end to be facilitated by more frequent and more rapid inter-communication. It will be the greatest gain when the personal and commercial relations of the American states south and north shall be so developed and so regulated that each shall acquire the highest possible advantage from the enlightened and enlarged intercourse of all.

Before the conference shall formally enter upon the discussion of the subjects to be submitted to it I am instructed by the president to invite all the delegates to be the guests of the government during a proposed visit to various sections of the country with the double view of showing to our friends from abroad the condition of the United States, and of giving to our own people in their own homes the privilege and pleasure of extending the warm welcome of Americans to Americans.

At the conclusion of the address the members of the conference broke into applause, which was prolonged to some length.

Mr. Henderson then took the chair. The following resolutions were offered:

RESOLVED, That this congress names as president pro tempore the Hon. John B. Henderson, a delegate to this congress, representing the United States of America.

RESOLVED, That a committee of five members be appointed by the president, whose duty it shall be to designate and report to the congress on its reassembling in November next, such committees as its judgment should be appointed to facilitate the business of the congress and the number of members which each committee shall have.

RESOLVED, That the president pro tem. is hereby authorized and requested to appoint a committee on organization, to consist of five members, whose duty it shall be to recommend to congress the name of some suitable person as permanent president thereof; and, it is further

RESOLVED, That said committee shall recommend to the congress the manner in which a presiding officer shall be selected in the absence of the president.

Under the last resolution the following committee on organization was announced by the president: Senator Romero, the Mexican minister; Councillor Lafayette Rodriguez Pereira, of Brazil; Dr. Alberto Nin, of Uruguay; Dr. Horacio Guzman, the Nicaraguan minister to this country. Dr. Jose M. Hurtado, of Columbia.

The committee retired, and in a few moments returned with the following resolution, which was adopted:

RESOLVED, That the Hon. James G. Blaine, secretary of state of the United States of America, be elected president of the international American congress; and be it further

RESOLVED, That in the absence of the president, the chair will be occupied by one of the delegates of each of the nations represented in the congress by turn selected by lot.

Another committee was then appointed as follows: Senator Herta, of Bliss, United States; Senator Venier, of Bolivia; Dr. Aragon, Costa Rica; Senor Zegura, Peru, to notify Secretary Blaine of his election.

Mr. Blaine had retired to his room after delivering his speech. Meanwhile a resolution was adopted providing for a committee of seven to draw up rules of procedure.

Another resolution followed, providing for the appointment of a committee to distribute the work of the congress through a set of sub-committees. This and the other committee will be named later on by the chairman.

On motion of one of the South American delegates the following resolution was adopted:

RESOLVED, That the members of the international American congress accept with pleasure the invitation of the president of the United States of America to be the guests of his government in an excursion through the territories of the United States, and that we express thanks for said invitation.

Mr. Blaine was at this juncture escorted to the chair by the committee appointed for this purpose, and a short recess was taken. On motion of Mr. Henderson it was resolved to adjourn until Nov. 18, when the congress will meet at noon in this city at the Wallach mansion.

Headed by Mr. Blaine, the members proceeded on foot to the White House, a few yards distant, stopping en route to have their pictures taken in a group on the east portico of the state department building. On their arrival at the White House the delegates were shown to the reception room to await the president. Shortly after the arrival of the delegates, Maj. Ernest U. S. A., came from the red parlor and proceeded to the blue parlor, the official reception room. He was followed by the president and Mrs. Harrison. Secretary Blaine came next with Miss Grace Davis, and the other cabinet officers followed arm in arm. Walker Blaine, Chief Clerk Lee, of the state department, and Private Secretary Halford bringing up the rear.

The president, Mrs. Harrison and the cabinet took their stand in the blue parlor. The delegates then entered and were presented to the president and the cabinet officers, shaking hands with each and passing into the green and east parlors. At the conclusion of the reception the delegates and members of the cabinet were shown to the state dining room where luncheon was served. Music was rendered by the marine band. The halls and parlors of the mansion were profusely decorated with the flags of the nations and the chandeliers were ablaze of light.

ELECTION RETURNS.

It Will Require the Official Count to Decide the Result in the New States.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 3.—Returns from Tuesday's elections are yet meager and exceedingly slow in coming to the front. It is estimated at present that less than half the precincts of the state have been heard from. As the result nothing is definitely known, excepting that the Republicans have made a clean sweep of the state, and that prohibition is carried by 5,000.

The capital question causes the wildest excitement, and there is no interest whatever in anything else. St. Louis, Huron and Pierre, each have about 10,000 votes, and each claim the location, but the result at this hour is as deeply in the dark as it was forty-eight hours ago. The vote will be very close, and it is believed it will require the official count to settle the question.

Washington.

CHICAGO, Oct. 3.—In reply to a telegraphic request, Mr. H. W. Scott, editor of The Portland Oregonian, now in Olympia, Washington, telegraphs as follows:

The Washington constitution has been adopted by 18,000 to 20,000 majority. The whole Republican state ticket has been elected by 8,000 to 10,000.

Of 110 members of the legislature in both houses, the Democrats have not elected more than fifteen. The prohibition and woman suffrage clauses of the constitution have been defeated. For the state capital Olympia is largely ahead of all competitors, and may have a majority over all, though the better judgment is that another ballot will be necessary to decide it. All of the principal towns—Seattle, Tacoma, Spokane Falls, Olympia, Fort Townsend and Van Couver—voted heavily for the constitution, and gave large Republican majorities.

Both Sides Claim Montana.

HELENA, Mont., Oct. 3.—The result of the election is still claimed by both committees, but the general indications seem to favor the Democrats.

Prominent Democrats, including Governor Hanson, are confident of the success of their candidates for governor and congress, and also that they will have a majority in the legislature.

The chairman of the Republican committee says the Republicans will control both branches of the legislature, and that Carter is elected to congress.

Pierre a No Lead.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Oct. 3.—It is a sure victory for Pierre for the capital of South Dakota. The Journal's staff correspondent at Aberdeen telegraphs: Chairman McCoy estimates that Pierre will have 10,000 plurality. A Deadwood special says thirty-four precincts in the Black Hills give Pierre 3,128; Huron, 367; Sioux Falls, 136; Chamberlain, 118; Watertown, 125.

A HO RIBLE CRIME.

Unknown Person Fires Into a Church, Killing one Man and Wounding Others.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 3.—The Picayune's Moss Point, Miss., special says: Last night about 8 o'clock, during a prayer meeting services at the Presbyterian church, some one fired a shot into the congregation through the front door of the building and instantly killed Mr. Daniel R. Melnis and mortally wounded his little daughter Nellie.

Mr. Henry Blumer was also seriously wounded, receiving five buckshot in his left breast and shoulder. There is no clue to the perpetrator of the horrible act, and no one knows what prompted the deed. A large foot track is found back of the church. The whole community is greatly excited.

BIG MONEY REJECTED.

Philadelphia Offers $5,000 for Comiskey, But He Is Not for Sale.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 3.—The mission of W. H. Voltz, of Philadelphia, to this city leaked out to-day. He came here for Capt. Comiskey, and is the agent of the Philadelphia club. He made his highest bid this morning, $14,000, which is the largest offer ever made for a base ball player.

Pittsburg made an offer of $15,000 for Anson for a season, but it proved to be only a bluff. Von der Ahe shook his head and said that as long as he had a ball team Comiskey would be with it. Voltz goes back with a promise of first choice when the team comes to dispose of the valuable captain.

Held in $25,000 Bail Each.

CHICAGO, Oct. 3.—Engineer Twombly and Fireman Laloche, held by the coroner's jury for criminal responsibility in the Rock Island suburban train disaster, were admitted to bail to-day in $25,000 each. Two gentlemen connected with the road gave bail for Twombly, whose drunkenness caused the wreck. Laloche failed to secure bondsmen. The accused are to be tried for murder in the first degree. Michael O'connor, another of the victims, died this afternoon.

Another Fall of Rock at Quebec.

QUEBEC, Oct. 3.—At an early hour this morning a large piece of rock became detached from the face of the cliff immediately under Dufferin terrace, and went crashing into a house on Little Champlain street. The slide took place several yards to the east of the scene of the recent fatal disaster. No lives were lost. The whole back of the building struck by the rock is crushed and wrecked.

It Is Still Undecided.

Who Will Be the Next Commissioner of Pensions.

NEW CANDIDATES IN THE FIELD.

If the Appointee is a Western Man, General Brown, of Ohio, Has the Best Chance, but If It is an Eastern Man It Lies Between General Hartranft or Mr. Poole—Other Washington News.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—Who will be commissioner of pensions seems to-day almost as difficult a problem to solve as it was the day after Commissioner Tanner retired from office. Who will not be commissioner is easy to foretell and in this matter alone has the atmosphere that surrounds the question cleared.

In rapid succession have Maj. Warner, of Missouri; Maj. Merrill, of Massachusetts, and Hon. E. N. Morrill, of Kansas, disappeared from the field, and now Mr. Campbell, of Kansas, who has figured in the press for some days, has followed the others. In the meantime, ex-Governor Hartranft, of Pennsylvania; ex-Pension Agent Poole, of Syracuse, N. Y.; Gen. Brown, of Ohio, and ex-Commander Rea, of Minnesota, continue before the public.

Petitions in favor of the appointment of Mr. Rea are being received at the interior department almost daily, and scattering endorsements in favor of the others are also coming in. The papers filed by Messrs. Poole and Brown at the time they were candidates last spring, are still on file in the appointment room of the secretary of the interior.

The papers of Mr. Poole are especially strong, and recently a quiet but exceedingly strong effort has been made in his behalf by the New York Republican delegation in congress. The name of Gen. Hartranft has been well received in department circles, and should the appointment come east it is thought the choice would be between Gen. Hartranft and Mr. Poole.

In the west Gen. Brown is a formidable candidate, and he is being strongly pushed by Ohio congressmen. His endorsement by Private Dalzell will not, it is thought, strengthen his candidacy. Acting Pension Commissioner Smith is not without friends in the pending contest, and some few endorsements of him for the place are being received. At the interior department, however, he is not seriously considered in the race.

Postoffice Receipts.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—A statement prepared by Sixth Auditor Coulter shows that the total receipts of the post-office department for the first three quarters of the fiscal year 1888-89, were $42,341,933; expenditures for the same quarters were $45,663,223, leaving a deficiency of $3,321,270, which indicates a deficiency for the entire fiscal year 1888-89 of about $4,500,000. The expenditures for the three quarters named increased over the corresponding quarters of the previous fiscal year 9.7 per cent., while the receipts for the same quarters increased over the corresponding quarters of the previous fiscal year 6.7 per cent.

Negro Self-Protection.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—A letter written by William E. Matthews and endorsed by Hon. John M. Langston, has created some excitement. In it Matthews speaks of his courteous treatment abroad as compared with that at home; refers bitterly to the persecutions of helpless negroes in this country, and says that the time is ripe for a race organization for self-protection. Mr. Langston is selected by Mr. Matthews as the right man to head the league.

Civil Service Appointments.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—The civil service commission have appointed Joseph Southworth, Jr., Madison M. Cannon and William E. Pierce, members of the examining board of the New York custom house, to fill vacancies on the board.

DESTRUCTIVE STORM.

Many Vessels Lost Off the Coast of Campeche.

CITY OF MEXICO, Oct. 3.—A storm struck the coast of Campeche on the 19th, and a gale from that day until the 21st devastated the seaboard of the peninsula for miles. Vessel after vessel was driven ashore.

Twelve foreign barges, some of them high and dry on the beach, others partially submerged, and still others with their masts sticking out of the water; two steamships and twenty schooners and many smaller crafts complete the list in Carmen harbor. The names of the foreign vessels have not been reported, and the number of lives lost is unknown.

Dependent Farmer Hangs Himself.

CIRCLEVILLE, O., Oct. 3.—Robert Stevenson, a young farmer of Muhlenberg township, committed suicide yesterday evening by hanging himself to a joist in his father's barn. Dependancy is supposed to have been the cause.

Short in His Account.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 3.—A special to The Inquirer from Easton, Pa., says: Jacob Odenwalder, recorder of deeds, is short in his accounts to the amount of nearly $8,000. The shortage will be made good by his bondsmen.

Nine Indictments for Embezzlement.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 3.—The grand jury found nine indictments against ex-Treasurer Burke for embezzlement of public money. Maj. Burke is on his way home, and will be arrested on his arrival.

THURSDAY, OCT. 3, 1889.

ONE of the greatest musical prodigies of the age is little Clara Johnson, who played to an appreciative audience at Scott's Chapel last night. She is less than four years of age and plays over sixty tunes on the piano. By request she will play to-night, at the court house. Seats can be reserved. Died, September 19th, at noon, JAMES E. MANNEN, eldest son of Thomas H. and Susan Mannen. The deceased was born on the 3rd day of January, 1851, near Washington, Ky., and passed away at the age of 40 years. He had two younger brothers, T. H. and R. L. Mannen, preceded him to the grave. His family was well known in Macon County, and he leaves behind him a large circle of friends. His life was eventful, yet uneventful. It was a life of suffering and suifrance. Having no marked ambition, it was a singularly quiet, unobtrusive and to others inoffensive life. He was a good, but not a charitable man, and upon him, he was strong, active and industrious. Possessed of great happiness of temper, he was always amiable and courteous. He thought and spoke little of his own faults and failures, but his forbearance was one of his characteristics. He would prefer to suffer a wrong himself than by attempting to right it, cause unnecessary scandal or needless pain to others. He was a cheerful and generous soul. There are those sleeping confined and shrouded in not unhooped graves to-day whom his bounty helped to coffin and bury; there are living little children who are his debtors for the little he did and educate; and old men whose declining years his kindness helped to comfort and to soothe. His charities were not limited by his purse, but often his cheering voice, swift and ready, was the best medicine for the sick who needed it assistance that money could not buy. Such was something of his life. In the face of his death and in the presence of those forceful questions which will be made to him some time, he will be asked, "What words of honest praise, or idle flattery, fall alike on the dull, cold ear of death. The voice of censure he would no more heed than the ravings of the mad, wild winds roar in the ears of the dead about the rustling of the fast-fading leaves in the tree-tops above it. He erred, who has not? He had his faults and frailties; he was human, but he has paid the price of his frailties, and he has been a good, honest, pure, perfect and fine exemplar of poor human nature."

LUCKY EXHIBITORS.

List of Premiums Awarded the Second Day of the Germantown Fair.

The Germantown fair company is playing in luck this year. It is having bright sunny days for the meeting now in progress, and if the weather remains favorable the exhibition will prove one of the most successful ever held on the grounds.

The attendance yesterday was up to the average for the second day. About twelve hundred people were on the grounds. Hauck's Reed and Brass Band charmed everybody with the excellent music. There was a fine exhibition of live stock in the arena. Following is a list of the premiums awarded:

MULES.

Cutting Affray in Chester.

Frank Hicks and Alvin Wallingford, of Chester, quarreled Tuesday evening over some trivial matter. Words were followed by blows, and Wallingford came out of the rumpus with an ugly cut that laid open one side of his face. A physician had to be called in to sew up the wound.

Burglary at Orangeburg.

Willert Brothers' store at Orangeburg was burglarized Tuesday night. The thief or thieves effected an entrance by boring some holes in the door and raising the latch. Half a barrel of sugar, a lot of boots and shoes and other goods were stolen. Parties living in the place are suspected, but no arrests had been made at last accounts.

A Big Hotel Talked Of.

There is considerable talk of organizing a joint stock company here to erect a big hotel. The site most frequently mentioned is the southwest corner of Second and Sutton. This would prove an excellent location, if it could be secured. Several parties have expressed a willingness to take stock in the proposed company. The plan most talked of is to erect a handsome four-story building, with most of the first floor divided up into store rooms. The general opinion is that the enterprise would prove a paying one. It remains to be seen, however, whether the talk will amount to anything.

Death of Mrs. Dr. Shackelford.

Mrs. Shackelford, wife of Dr. James Shackelford, died this morning at 10 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. C. Goggin, in Washington, from consumption. The sad news will be a surprise to many friends of the family. The deceased had been in declining health the past year or so, and was reported in a critical condition yesterday, but the matter was not generally known. She became much worse last night and sank rapidly from that on till her suffering were ended in the sleep of death.

The deceased was about forty-five years of age. She was a daughter of the late Thomas Calvert, of Lewisburg. Her husband and two young children, a son and daughter, survive her.

Notice of the funeral will be announced to-morrow.

THE "King's Daughters" of the Central Presbyterian Church are requested to meet at Miss Lucy Lee's next Tuesday afternoon at half-past 2 o'clock. The older members of the church are requested to meet with them.

THE old Union soldiers and sailors, under the auspices of the A. G. Wildman Post No. 5, G. A. R., will hold a re-union at the fair grounds at Falmouth on Wednesday, October 16th, and a hearty invitation is extended to all who desire to participate in the festivities.

W. B. BROADWELL, of Dover, and Mrs. Mary Francis Dunham, of Ripley, were married last evening at the residence of Squire James Earnshaw, at Dover. The groom is seventy-eight years old, while the bride is fifty-one. It is the second matrimonial venture of each of the contracting parties.

SAYS the Georgetown, Ky., Times: "Rev. W. J. E. Cox, left Tuesday for Maysville, his new home. He will carry with him the good wishes of numerous friends for the prosperity and welfare of himself and family. Mrs. Cox is detained in Georgetown by illness, being still confined to her bed. She will join her husband as soon as able."

HENRY HAUGHEY and Miss Williams eloped one night this week from their home near Bethel. They reached Maysville a little ahead of the irate father, who was in hot pursuit, with a shotgun in hand. The couple eluded the old man, however. They crossed from the Fifth ward grade and were married at Aberdeen. The groom for nerly lived in this county, near Luckaloe.

MARRIED, Oct. 2nd, at the residence of Mrs. John L. Rue, near Shawhan, Bourbon County, by Rev. J. M. Evans, of this city, Miss Linda Chinn to Captain S. Geisreiter, the latter of Arkansas. The bride is a daughter of Dr. Chinn, who was a prominent physician of Lewisburg in his day. She is a niece of the late John LaRue, and has many warm friends in Maysville and Mason County.

It is reported that the Rainbow, a fine new large side-wheel steamer, will shortly enter the Pittsburg and Cincinnati trade. Her commander will be Captain Pres Ellison, one of her owners. She will be furnished and fitted with all the latest luxuries and improvements, including electric lights in the cabin and all over the boat, and will be handsomely prepared for passenger and freight business.

"LARKING," a musical comedy that will be presented at the opera house next Saturday night, is now playing to delighted audiences in the West. The Minneapolis Tribune, of recent date, says: "Larking" was produced at the Bijou Opera House last week to crowded houses. It is a farce of a high order of merit, and well deserves its success. 'Bate,' the homeliest dog on earth, came in for his share of attention."

THROUGH the efforts of the National Humane Society and the Kentucky Division of that body, a conditional pardon has been obtained from Governor Buckner for Linnville Combs, the youngest life convict ever sent to a penitentiary. He lived with his mother and step-father in Breathitt County. There was a baby in the family, and one day this baby was missed. Linnville was questioned, and finally led the neighbors to where the baby was found in a creek, with its head crushed in. He said he had hit the child on the head with a skillet and killed it, after which he tried to burn the body. It did not burn fast enough and he threw it into the creek. He also said his father had promised him a pair of new red-top boots if he would kill the baby. Being an infant in law, his testimony against the old man was valueless, but he was sent to prison for life. He will now be placed in the Industrial School of Reform at Louisville until he becomes of age.

MANY friends of Dr. Harry Savage, formerly of Germantown, will be delighted to hear of his success at his home in the West. The following very flattering notice is copied from the Central Missourian, of Sept. 26th, published at Glasgow: "Dr. Savage, our throat and nasal specialist, had a number of patients from various localities this week, including Huntsville, Keztesville, Armstrong and Roanoke. Glasgow is certainly keeping up with the times, not only in business, but in furnishing relief to the afflicted. The doctor is getting up quite a reputation as an oculist also. A little girl from Saline County, who had not seen for eight years, and had visited several eminent specialists, without any relief, was operated on by him, and after being kept in a dark room for several days, her mother raised the cover from her eyes. Imagine her delight when the child told her she saw a house across the street, and being taken to the doctor, the little one was surprised in not seeing an aged man and told him he had no beard on his face, except a little on his upper lip."

Miners in Illinois.

State of Affairs in the Streater Mines.

OPEN LETTER ON THE SUBJECT

Written by John McBride, President of the National Progressive Union of Miners and Mine Laborers, to the Governor of Illinois.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 3.—Hon. John McBride, president of the National Progressive Union of Miners and Mine Laborers, has addressed an open letter to Governor Joseph W. Fifer, of Illinois, in response to one written by Hon. W. L. Scott, in which the latter gentleman endeavored to sustain the position he has assumed regarding the present mining situation in Illinois. The following is an abstract of the letter:

"It is generally understood that when the operators of northern Illinois offered a ten-cent reduction, Mr. Scott made no proposition to his miners, but left them in doubt as to the terms he desired and intended to offer. When the joint meeting brought about through the agency of the committee appointed by you (Governor Fifer) succeeded in obtaining a concession of two and one-half cents, making a reduction in mining rates of seven and one-half cents a ton, Mr. Scott proposed seventy-five cents for mining at Spring Valley, thirty inches of brushing, three men in a room, with the additional condition that in the future he would refuse to deal with his miners through their committees, or as an organized body.

"Being willing to accept equitable conditions and prices, and to effect an honorable settlement of the present strike, the following is offered:

"First—To work the second or thick coal vein at Spring Valley for the price paid at Streater mines, namely, seventy-two and one-half cents per ton; this, too, in the face of the fact that the mine is yet in the crop coal, is full of faults, and up to this time has cost the company, by their own admission, over $2 per ton for mining it.

"Second—Believing that Mr. Scott will admit the fact that more labor is required to mine a ton of coal in the thin vein at Spring Valley than in the thick coal in Streater, we will agree to mine his thin coal for the price paid the thick coal miners at Streater, provided the company will do the crushing and building, or "Third—We will agree to an adjustment of prices and conditions such as may be determined by arbitration, or by an agreement to jointly investigate and be governed by facts developed by such investigation.

The Boycott Unjust.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—The boycott on the part of the trades unions against the firm of Peck, Martin & Company, dealers in building material, was discussed at yesterday's meeting of the Builders' Material exchange. After the situation had been explained by a member of the boycotted firm, resolutions were adopted denouncing the action of the trades unions as un-American and therefore not to be encouraged, and pledging that the influence of the exchange will be exerted to defeat the boycott. Another meeting of the exchange will be held to-morrow, at which it is expected definite measures will be taken to carry out the ideas of the exchange.

A Base Ball Decision.

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 3.—The directors of local League base ball club have fully decided not to play any postponed games with New York unless they can be assured that by so doing that they are not coming into conflict with any rules. They have telegraphed for advice from the various League presidents and will abide by their information. They are not desirous of becoming involved in any hair splitting argument over the championship, and particularly so as the interests of their own club are at stake in securing a good position in the race.

Approaching an End.

CHICAGO, Oct. 3.—Work in the Cronin case dragged again yesterday. One of the three men who had been accepted by both sides, was excused on account of sickness in his family, and one of the men temporarily passed yesterday was challenged peremptorily by the defense. Twenty-five veniremen were examined. Twenty were excused for cause, two challenged peremptorily by the state and one by the defense, and two temporarily passed. Only fifteen peremptory challenges remain to the credit of the defense.

A Comedian's Wife Suicides.

NORWALK, Conn., Oct. 3.—News is received of the suicide, on Sunday, by drowning, of Mrs. Augustus Phillips, who was visiting on the Pacific coast. Her husband was a well known New York comedian. The lady was a granddaughter of the late Dr. Blackman, a wealthy resident of Westport, and inherited his estate. Her maiden name was Mollie Richards, and she was a belle and great social favorite here during her girlhood.

No One Saw The Dead.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Oct. 3.—Daniel Robins, a ship rigger, aged 64, of 187 Java street, shot and killed his wife Anna, aged 53, last night, and then shot himself dead. The couple had frequently quarreled over property, and though the tragedy was not witnessed, it is supposed that one of these quarrels led to it.

Fire Raging at Fairport, New York.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Oct. 3.—It is reported that the village of Fairport is being swept by a disastrous fire, and that the business portion will probably be consumed. Assistance has been sent from here.

A Right Flier Released.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 3.—Joe Sommer, Baltimore's right fielder, was released last night. Sommer was the oldest player in the town.

Second race, three miles with turn, purse $1,500, $1,000 to first, $300 to second and $200 to third. Teneyok led at the start, Hamm was first at the mile, Gaudaur second. Gaudaur led at the turn and finished first by six lengths. Time, 21:30. Hamm second and Teneyok a bad third. Hanlon was not in condition and would not start in the second race.

Making Tin Plates in Pittsburg.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 3.—The tin plate mill at the exposition was put in operation yesterday under the supervision of W. C. Cronne-meyer, secretary of the American Tinned Plate association, and it was demonstrated that tin plates can be made in this country as well as in England. Perfect plates were turned out, and experts who examined them claim they are equal, if not superior, to those manufactured across the water.

Jealous Husband Shoots Him-self.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 3.—Edward L. Mann, a well-to-do telegraph operator, for twenty years in the Western Union service here, committed suicide this morning by shooting himself through the head. He was unreasonably jealous, and a surprise party given in honor of his wife's birthday excited this passion, and this, added to an excess of drink, made him wild. The coroner's verdict gave temporary insanity from jealousy and drink as the cause. He leaves a wife and three children.

Thrown From His Horse and Killed.

ORRVILLE, O., Oct. 3.—John Spindler, a bachelor, aged 60 years, was instantly killed at his home, three miles east of this place yesterday, by being thrown from his horse, his neck being broken. He lived alone on his farm, and it is claimed he lived the life of a hermit and a miser, and had accumulated about $70,000. Coroner Boynton held an inquest and rendered a verdict of accidental death.
